Consignment Agreement

Marling's Home Furnishings is committed to saving you even more by offering you the best possible prices on quality home furnishings, great selection, and fast turnover for your consigned items. Consigned items are displayed for 120 days and will be discounted based on the following schedule:

Terms & Conditions:

- You, the consignor, will receive fifty percent (50%) of the selling price (price will be set by you and a representative of Marling's)
- A ten to twenty percent (10-20%) reduction will occur after 60 days
- If the consignor agrees to accept a sale from a buyer at a price lower than this agreement, Marling's percentage of the contract amount will be deducted from the consignor's portion
- Permission is granted to representatives of Marling's to negotiate within a ten percent (10%) range without contacting the consignor to make or secure a sale
- Consignor is responsible for any/all delivery and pickup charges to deliver items to Marling's
- Checks will be mailed on the twenty-fifth (25th) of each month for the previous month's sales
- Any unsold items remaining at the end of the contract may be picked up within seven (7) days. Any unclaimed items at the end of this period will become property of Marling's

Liability:

All merchandise entrusted to Marling's is left solely at the consignor's risk without any liability, expressed or implied by Marling's Home Furnishings
